

SPECIAL OCCASION AND MEMORIAL GIFTS

Making a gift to the Newark Museum in honor of a special occasion is a wonderful way to celebrate the values we share: love of arts and culture, appreciation for science and history, and a pursuit of lifelong learning.

Memorial gifts honor Newark Museum friends whose energy and generosity have shaped our community. They are a testament to an individual whose memory endures in the good work of the Museum to serve and educate the public with access to art and culture.

Honorary and memorial gifts support the Newark Museum's general operations. As a gateway to art and the creative spirit, the Newark Museum uses these funds to deliver the highest quality programs and services throughout the year.

The Newark Museum is pleased to acknowledge gifts made in honor of beloved members of our community past and present. Individuals honored, or a family member of your choosing, will receive timely notification of the gift with a message from you. No amount will be indicated. You will receive a letter confirming that your gift is tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law. Special occasion and memorial gifts are listed on the Museum's annual meeting bulletin and in its donor listings.

The Newark Museum's 7-acre campus of historical architecture, with over 80 galleries and indoor and outdoor program spaces, offer a range of opportunities to honor and remember loved ones. Inscriptions remember individuals and families in perpetuity as part of the fabric of New Jersey's largest museum serving 300,000 visitors each year.

For more information about honorary and memorial gifts and current naming opportunities, please contact Michele Saliola, Director of Individual Giving, at (973) 596-6491 or by email at msaliola@newarkmuseum.org.
